Special Requirements for Jump Rope Parents

- Jump rope meets/competitions are officiated by team member parents. Each team must provide judges when registering for a meet. Jump rope parents are required to attend an AAU/USA Jump rope certification clinic annually. Parents are also required to volunteer at every meet/competition and be available to officiate.

Warm-up/ Stretches and prior to competing

All members will stretch prior to jumping. Coaches will direct all of the stretching exercises. All members must report on time to the competition venue and participate in the stretching program as a team together. We will all warm up and stretch upon arrival to the competition. After this warm-up stretch you may not jump or participate in any physical activity until 5 or 6 heats before you compete. At that time A coach will take you to the competition warm up area. Only those competitors who are on deck to compete may be in this area. All other team mates must remain seated in the designated area. TEAM MEMBERS MUST SIT TOGETHER AS A TEAM, PLEASE BRING YOUR VIDEO GAMES, A BOOK TO READ OR ANYTHING THAT MAY HELP SHOULD YOU GET BORED AS YOU WILL NOT BE PERMITTED TO RUN AROUND OR PRACTICE UNTIL YOU ARE DIRECTED TO DO SO BY COACH PAUL. YOU MUST ASK PERMISSION EACH AND EVERY TIME BEFORE LEAVING YOUR SEAT. EXAMPLE: GOING TO THE BATH ROOM, CONCESSION, OR PRACTICE AREAS.

Sportsmanship	Show good sportsmanship whether or not you win or place. Congratulate team members and other teams just as you would like them to congratulate you. Remember, this is your team; be proud of it.
Crying	Crying is a powerful physical response to strong feelings. Crying is a healthy response to frustration, sadness, anger, and disappointment. Crying is also a personal emotion that does not need to be shared with team mates, onlookers and bystanders. Learning to control one's emotions is an important skill. In reality, an uninjured athlete crying is distracting to team mates and onlookers. For this reason, there is no crying in the gym or during competition unless you are injured. If you need to cry, leave the gym and go to the bathroom. We have no problem with crying in our program so long as it takes place in a private, personal spot.
Personal Property	Label all ropes, shirts, jackets and personal belongings with your name, keep track of your clothing, ropes and equipment by keeping them in your bags. Personal belongings are your responsibility to keep track of! If you are not using it, keep it in your bag.
Competition Among Teammates	While it is good to have someone who keeps you motivated because he/she is a little better than you, please do not concentrate on "beating" each other. You are a team, behave as one. Let your teammate inspire you rather than you berating them. A good attitude towards other team mates and staff members is very important. This includes support and respect . Always do your personal best!
Competition Awards Ceremony	It is required that all athlete/competition/meet participants remain at the competition venue in uniform with hair FRENCH BRADED until the conclusion of the award ceremony and team photo. Please quietly sit with your teammates and support your team members even if you will not be receiving an award. Athletes are expected to stay at the meet/competition with their team until all awards for all participants have been given out. It is rude and disrespectful to other competitors, teams and teammates to do otherwise. Athletes should cheer on those getting awards. Athletes must wear team uniforms and all in the same uniform (if wearing warm-up jackets, all must be in the jacket) to receive awards at the conclusion of the meet. Parents: please be aware that your child will need to be at the National Championships meet/competition eight to twelve hours from warm ups to awards. Please plan accordingly.
BULLYING/SOCIAL AGGRESSION BEHAVIOR	US National Center for Education Statistics suggests that bullying can be broken into two categories: Direct bullying, and indirect bullying which is also known as social aggression
Bullying by members will require immediate staff member/parent counseling and removal from the Youth Sports Center. Bullying is defined in the right hand column.	Ross states that direct bullying involves a great deal of physical aggression such as shoving and poking, throwing things, slapping, choking, punching and kicking, beating, stabbing, pulling hair, scratching, biting and scraping He also suggests that social aggression or indirect bullying is characterized by forcing the victim into social isolation. This isolation is achieved through a wide variety of techniques, including spreading gossip, refusing to socialize with the victim, bullying other people who wish to socialize with the victim, and criticizing the victim's manner of dress and other socially-significant markers (including the victim's race, religion, disability, etc). Ross (1998)^[4] outlines other forms of indirect bullying which are more subtle and more likely to be verbal, such as name calling, the silent treatment, arguing others into submission, manipulation, gossip/ false gossip, lies, rumors/ false rumors, staring, giggling, laughing at the victim, saying certain words that trigger a reaction from a past event , and mocking.
General Competition Rules	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Listen carefully to: the order of events, age categories, coach's instructions and rules. • Do not wander around; stay with your team. If a coach cannot find you, you will be scratched from the tournament/function. Athletes must know their heats/stations and make themselves available to coaches.
Positive Attitude Team Spirit Cooperation Fitness	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Athletes may not scratch from an event during competition with the exception of injury. Disagreement with team mate(s) or poor preparation is not an acceptable reason for scratching. • Athletes competing in team events (Pairs, Double Dutch, Group Routine) are expected to work as a "team" and put forth 100% effort. Your practice times will be determined by your coach. Please make good use of this time. Competition days can be very long days. Practice in designated areas with your coach only.

- Concentrate on doing your personal best. Visualize yourself completing your routine with no mistakes while you are waiting. Focus on achieving your personal best and you will be successful.
- Be supportive of all team members. You must cheer on team members.
- Stay with your team during "team" functions. Time will be available to hang out with and make friends later.
- ALL TEAM MEMBERS MUST BE PRESENT DURING AWARDS IN YOUR UNIFORM DO NOT CHANGE CLOTHES!
- Jewelry may not be worn during competition. (ALL JEWELRY MUST BE REMOVED)
- Mostly white shoes are required. Shoes must be tied "double knotted"

- Most competition venues tend to be cold. Please dress for a cold environment. Possibly long sleeves under your white shirt. Something you can take off
- Parents are encouraged to take photos and video of competition and submit them to Coach Paul for addition to the club's web site. These pictures are much appreciated and represent different perspectives and will help to keep an even balance of representation on our web site!
- Flash photography is not permitted at any time during competition.

Photos/Video

News Media

- Please refer all news media requests to Coach Paul. It is unacceptable for anyone else to speak to the media on behalf of Youth Sports or USA Jump Rope.

Competitor Conduct

- All jumpers must conduct themselves in a courteous manner and show good sportsmanship at all times. Your good conduct is expected. We will be competing many new team members this year. Some of our routines are may still not be mastered perfectly. We all know this and must understand that although the routines may not be perfect, we must show great presentation during the routines (30% of your score). If things break down and don't happen the way you want to in your routine DO NOT RUIN YOUR TEAMS PRESENTATION SCORE. Displaying poor sportsmanship at any time can result in dismissal from the team.

The Youth Sports Code of Conduct applies at all Club functions. Rude behavior, goofing around and horse play will not be tolerated. Observe all safety rules. Obey all coaches!! The team must sit together during the competition please cheer in your fellow teammates. It is unacceptable to sit elsewhere, on parents laps, or hang out with members of opposing teams.

ONE MORE TIME!
